

STAY SAFE

Avoid strenuous walks in hot weather; inform someone of your route and travel time. Carry plenty of water, wear suitable clothing and sturdy footwear.

Bury toilet waste 2 ft deep, 100m from campsites, water, and trails
Take rubbish with you; dispose of waste properly.

Water is not provided in DAC recreation areas; bring enough for your stay.

Boats and boat trailers only permitted at Daluwuy Bay.

No hunting or firearms including bow allowed on Yolŋu land. No unregistered motorbikes or ATVs (quads).

BE CROC WISE

Estuarine Saltwater Crocodiles (bāru) are present in all waterways – avoid swimming and be cautious near all bodies of water.

Do not dispose of fish carcasses near campsites or boat ramps.

LOOK AFTER YOURSELF AND OTHERS

Be cautious of all wildlife and seek medical attention if bitten/stung. Avoid mosquitos and sandflies – use repellent, wear protective clothing, and choose campsites wisely

BUFFALOS ARE DANGEROUS

Avoid close contact, especially at dawn or dusk.

WATCH OUT FOR STINGERS

Jellyfish are common (Oct-May); treat stings with vinegar and seek medical help.
